Annie Laurie.

Mixwelten Brass are bonnie, Where early fa's the dew, And it's there that Annie Laurie Gle'd me her promise true, Which nefer forgot will be, And for bonnie Annie Laurie I'd lay me down and dee.

Her threw is like the snewdrift,
Her threat is like the swan;
Her face it is the fairest.
That e'er the sun shone on;
And dark blue is her c'e,
And for bonnie Annte Lauris
I'd lay me down and dee.

Like dew on the gowan lying
Is the fa' o' her fairy feet.
And like winds in summer sighing.
Her volce is low and sweet—
And she's a' the world to me;
And for bonnic Annie Laurie
I'd lay me down and dee

Opera Will be Given.

The Cavalleria Rusticana will be given on May 22d at Masonic Temple, for the heacift of the Rosemary Library. A chous and orchestra, directed by Mr. John H. Powell, have been got into fine shape with frequent rehearsals, and the cast is as follows:
Sanfazza, Miss Belle Powell.
Lola, Miss Louise Crutchfield.
Lucla, Miss Mabel Digrs.
Turiddu, Mr. Canepa.
Alfio, Mr. Pierce Breat.
The work of these solo parts has excited work of these solo parts has excited Plerce Brent's Alfo is exceedingly fine, and Miss Mabel Diggs's dramatic contrails brings out Lucia's part admirably. Miss Louise Crutchfield sings the charming part of Lola with a richness of tone outer delightful, and altogether these favorites in musical circles here are likely to add fresh laprels to their crowns on the evening of May 23d.

The whole work bids fair to prove a triumph for Richmond talent and pluck, and at the last rehearsal the splendid playing of the orchestra hrought on storms of band clapping from the chorus, who were in turn applauded both by the gentlemen of the orchestra and the director hecause of their spirited singing.

At the Woman's Club.

Miss Maria Blair will be the lecturer at the Woman's Club to-morrow, Monday, afternoon at 5 o'clock. She will speak to the ladies on "The Works of George Frederick Watts," an artist whose recrent death has brought his works into especial prominence, though he has for years been highly esteemed abroad.

On Saturday, May 20th, the Woman's Club will run an excursion to Williamsburg, leaving the Main Street Station at 5 A. M. and returning to Richmond at 7:50 F. M. While this excursion is primarily for the pleasure of its members, the club will be glad to have as many outsiders join it as may care to do so. The ladies of Bruton Parlsh have agreed to serve luncheon at the Parish House on that occasion, provided a sufficient number of persons will take it to pay them for the trouble of preparing it. It is therefore essential that all those wishing hunch at Williamsburg should leave their names as soon as possible with the janitress at the club.

There was a large meeting of the Milton C. Whist Club on Tuesday, when Miss Addle Chaffin and Miss Ruffin ited Misses Eliza Harris and Lucy Quarles for top score, north and south, while Mrs. Ben Palmer and Miss Florence Tyler were the winners, east and west. The annual business meeting of this club will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full and prompt attendance is requested, that the regular game, which will be played after the business meeting, may begin promptly at 5 o'clock.
